

-AR Verbs

- -AR verbs are verbs, or action words, that end in "AR" in the infinitive.
- The "infinitive" form of the verb is the one you would find in the dictionary. Like "To talk" - "Hablar"

A small illustration of three crayons (yellow, green, and red) is located in the bottom left corner of the slide.

-AR Verbs - 1st Person

- The 1st Person form is the "yo" ("I") form.
- Use the 1st Person to talk about yourself.

A small illustration of three crayons (yellow, green, and red) is located in the bottom left corner of the slide.

-AR Verbs - 1st Person

- Necesitar: to need
-Yo necesito: I need
- Comprar: to buy
-Yo compro: I buy

A small illustration of three crayons (yellow, green, and red) is located in the bottom left corner of the slide.

-AR Verbs - 1st Person

- Mirar: to look at/watch
-Yo miro: I look at/watch
- Llevar: to carry/to wear
-Yo llevo: I carry/I wear

A small illustration of three crayons (yellow, green, and red) is located in the bottom left corner of the slide.

-AR Verbs - 3rd Person

- The 3rd person is the él/ella/usted form of the verb. Use it to talk about he/she/you (formal)

A small illustration of three crayons (yellow, green, and red) is located in the bottom left corner of the slide.

-AR Verbs - 3rd Person

- Buscar: to look for
  - Busca: he/she looks for
- Pagar: to pay
  - Paga: he/she pays

